

25X1A9a About 200 of Lawrence University's 1500 students were in the lounge of the Student Union to hear [REDACTED] speech. Only a few left before the end of the talk. There were an estimated 15 or 20 activists or sympathizers from the Lawrence Chapter of the SDS. About 20 faculty and staff personnel were there. The Security representative stated that nothing of a classified nature was divulged. [REDACTED] declined to answer some questions, explaining that he did not want to do 20 years in jail, and frequently referred students to such publications as Ramparts. [REDACTED] explained his recruitment by CIA, his assignment to the elite JOT corps, and his training and eventual assignment to the [REDACTED] area. The remainder of the program was devoted to a question and answer session. His talk was a total denunciation of CIA and its activities. He said that he left the Agency when he discovered that the methods, techniques, and operations of the Agency were contrary to his moral and ethical code. He cited no specific examples, but he inferred that CIA engaged in assassinations, extortions, dishonesty, trickery, deceit, fraud, etc. He referred to CIA and its employees as inept, inefficient, incompetent, irresponsible and confused.

25X1A9a [REDACTED] said that he fears the awesome power of CIA, stating that it is unchecked by Congress or the President. He claimed that CIA still has him under surveillance and that, from time to time, an old friend visits him and suggests abandonment of his anti-CIA behavior. [REDACTED] concluded his talk with a warning to all students that they should demonstrate peacefully and not in a manner that will interfere with the rights of interviewees to visit the CIA recruiter, and that they should adhere to the college regulations concerning demonstrations.
